

Pacific Municipalities, Vol. 29 : January, 1915 (Classic Reprint)

H A Mason

Excerpt from Pacific Municipalities, Vol. 29: January, 1915 The cost of this work is about ten cents per square foot, being one-third more than water-bound macadam. This includes the additional rock, construction in two courses, oiling, and the general increase in cost of work during four years. We have built, and are building, a large mileage of oil macadam. We are taking some risk, of course, in using a pavement that has no twenty - year record to prove its worth. We can only do like most cities, plead the necessities of the case, as our excuse.
