

Paestum, and Other Poems (Classic Reprint)

A Blair Thaw

Excerpt from Paestum, and Other Poems Here on thy plain of shifting sands This shrine, the first that mortal hands Built by the Western sea, Full of strange mystery, All silent, stands. Thy temple builders all are gone Darkly the Western sea rolls on Still, in this tower-strewn space Of rass, thy temples face ast, and the dawn. Thy worshippers are fast asleep, And, where thy city was, the sheep Feed midst those strange, pale towers, Which through thy dreaming hours Their long watch keep.
