

Painting His Wonderful Life: A Pair of Historical Romances

Doreen Milstead

The Cable Car Operator & The Wealthy American - An upper class young woman in Quebec has a lifelong dream of being the first woman cable car operator in San Francisco and when she meets a rich American at her debutante party, her dreams are quickly realized. However, its a much harsher reality that meets her, both on the job and with her burgeoning love for the man who is winning her heart. The Dark Shadows of Life - To escape an evil man after her father dies, an English woman journeys to America after corresponding with and then agreeing to marry a cowboy from Texas. He meets her in Boston and they take a side trip to Colorado to find his black sheep brother. The trouble is, the sheriff has given the bad twin his last chance and they dont know if theyll be able to find the wayward brother before its too late.
