This is an appeal from the district court of Oklahoma county. The parties appear here as In the trial court. By the petition It Is alleged, in substance, that the defendant, while employed as county stenographer by appointment of the judge of the county court of Oklahoma county, collected and retained divers sums of money for services in making transcripts of her stenographic notes of testimony and copies of the pleadings and records in certain proceedings had in said county court, which under the law should have been paid, or caused to be paid, into the county treasury, and prayed that she be required to account for the sums so received and retained by her, and for judgment therefor. Defendant answered by way of general denial. Upon trial to the court a demurrer was sustained to the evidence and judgment rendered for defendant. The county has appealed. The defendant was called and...
