Excerpt: ... he was caused, or has endured, any physical or mental pain or suffering, or was permanently hurt or injured, or dam I aged in the sum of $15,000, or any other sum whatever and denied that he was compelled to pay, or has paid, $150, or any other sum, for medicine or medical attendance. j And for a further answer the defendant alleged that at the time meutuued in the complaint the plaintiff was in the employ of defendant as a timberman in its mine, and that, at and prior to the time mentioned in the complaint, defendant was engaged in repairing an unused portion of the mine, and that in the course of said employment it became and was the duty of the plaintiff to pass through the place mentioned in the complaint, which place or stope was then, and for a long time prior thereto had been unused and abandoned that plaintiff well knew the character of the said stope. and the Umbers therein, and that the same were or might be unsafe, and that the plaintiff, while exercising no care or caution for his own safety, negligently and carelessly used the walk complained of and that the accident to the plaintiff was occasioned solely by the want of due care and caution on the part of plaintiff, and not on account of any failure, negligence, or carelessness on the part of defendant. A jury was impaneled in the cause November 16, 1895, and a ver diet in favor of plaintiff, and against the defendant, was rendered, assessing the plaintiffs damages at $3,000. The defendants notice of intention to move for a new trial was duly filed, and specified the following grounds: (1) Insufficiency of evidence to justify the verdict, and that same was against law. (2) Errors in law occurring at the trial, and excepted to by defendant giving notice that same would...
